...my perspective (words from one of our members)

Writing has always come easy to me and I have never struggled to find the words until now. My story is not one that I can call a mission but one that happened when I was finally ready to listen.

3 years ago, I lost my father to cancer. The fight was short, but the battle was fierce and fought till the very end. For my father, the battle was over, but for me it was just the beginning. There was so much guilt and sadness that I became another version of myself, feeling like I was watching the world from a distance. My actions became automatic and no matter how hard I tried to push through, each day became harder. The little things now turned into big things and I found myself avoiding anything that wasn't something that I could control. I was an empty shell just going through the motions. Even walking into Church was enough for me to crumple into nothing so I physically avoided it but still found myself asking God to help me. I couldn't understand why things happened the way they did, and I couldn't stop blaming myself for not being a better daughter.

Then one night, the grief and sadness overwhelmed me to the point of no end. I can remember crawling into bed with tears streaming down my face asking God to please take care of me and take away all the feelings of guilt and sadness. This wasn't the first time I had asked this, but this was the first time that I didn't hold back and begged him to take it away. I couldn't take it anymore. I was defeated. I ended up crying myself to sleep and when I woke up in the morning, the world looked and felt different than it had in a long time. The heaviness was gone and there was a feeling of peace within my soul.

What happened that night has and will forever change me. I have always believed in God but realize now that I had not really been listening to his word or what he was trying to say. God heard me that night and took away the pain and guilt and gave me a feeling of peace. I was ready to listen. I know now that I never truly opened my heart completely not out of disdain but out of fear and lack of acceptance.

I am no longer that same person I was just a few months ago. I find myself smiling and living in the moments rather than just letting them pass by. God gave me my life back and I thank God every day for allowing me to move forward. Now, when I think of my father, I think of the good times and know that he is at peace, watching over us by God's side.

Dawn Hauschild

“In Flux” Apt to change or fluctuate; prone to instability.

“My Newsletter reflects some of the report I gave at Council this month.”

We, as Christians, as a faith community, live life in transition. We, your staff and I, are doing everything we can to meet the needs of our members and of our guests by preparing and offering Worship/Funerals/Baptisms/Record keeping/Correspondences/Maintenance/Day Care/Child Care...and all the other things we do. We are doing the work in pretty much all areas. Our work might not appear to be efficient, but it is fulfilling our Call to Serve.

We, as a faith community, are doing some remarkable things. The debt is in the forefront, “Give S’more!” But debt isn’t the only piece that needs attention. We need to enlist the help of all who are willing and able to aid us in our witness.

We are still formatting the 9:15 service, and I think in a couple weeks, we will be back to a smooth order for our worship. 8 and 10:30 have resumed without much difficulty. Deacons and some helpful hands have helped Sam and me prep for our outdoor services and that has been a huge help. Sometimes, just the ask, “Can I assist?” is enough to get us through.

We want to welcome people back to church or find a way to reach those who now practice joining us from a distance. A “virtual” community is part of our new community. I believe the virtual community has been and will be a population we will continue to serve as part of this new normal.

I have met with and welcomed many people on Sunday who are in search of a faith community, and I know that the fluctuations or inability to gather in other churches has brought them here. We provide a space for them to belong and an opportunity to partner with us.

We need your help to bolster up our Youth Ministries, our Worship, our Outreach. These are really the only instructions necessary... Invite. Encourage. Attend.

We have people in leadership roles that look like the makeup of our congregation. Our council is a wonderful mix of people of all ages and abilities. Now we need to empower these people with confidence as to how to bring their leadership to the rest of the community especially as we no longer gather at one time and place.

We need to keep a knowledgeable leadership that is able to discern what our ministry needs are going to be in the future. But more important, we need to encourage our leaders to remain active in the worship and programs of our church because we need leaders to know our people and the settings in which we provide mission. (We have seen local clergy leave the ministry and few candidates are entering the Office of Pastor. As congregations lose their pastors, few candidates are available for the Call. We need to look at a different way to lift up and train the next generation of clergy. Truth be told, I’m tired. I’m not burned out, I’m tired.)

I leave you with this assignment. Talk about our church with others. Encourage those who are leading our ministry. Pray for our church, its members, and guests. Foster support and involvement. Attend, invite, and walk with those around you. Help us provide a foundation of faith for the ones who gather with us now and those who will faithfully follow in the future.

We continue to be “in flux,” but God, who gives order to our lives, remains ever faithful. PSALM 121:1-2 I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

BOARD of STEWARDSHIP May 16, 2021

Present May 16, 2021: Kathy Miller, Jan Hanson, Sherry Neisius,

Cheri Rott, Gary Rott.

Old Business: Sherry provided phone numbers of all members as an optional way to communicate. Cheri will set up a group text.

New Business: Cheri opened with devotion. We met today to work on more details for the S'more campaign. The campaign started with an introduction in the May newsletter and Cheri and Gary introduced the campaign to the congregation on May 9th. Pastor John has requested that it be presented for the next 3 Sundays and then every 2 weeks (starting in June). The following presenters are scheduled: May 9th Cheri and Gary / May 16 Jim Hauschild Sr. / May 23 Jim Hauschild Jr. / May 30 Jan Hanson / June 13 Sherry Neisius / June 27 Sherry Neisius July 11 to Oct 3 – open / Oct 17 Cheri R.

We will request speakers from the Board of Trustees to help fill the schedule. Kathy plans to contact Tobie about preparing postcards for us to send to the congregation to encourage participating in the S'more debt reduction. We did not determine our next meeting date as we are waiting on a determination of when the postcards will be ready for us to prepare to send out. We are hopeful to meet early in July or later in June to put the mailings together so that they would have them before the July 25th Christmas in July celebration.

October 31st, we hope to have a mortgage paper burning celebration with s'mores, hot chocolate, and coffee. We will use the big grill for roasting. Donut Debt reduction to happen on Father's Day. Discussed how we could do this as services are back inside. We could have coffee and juice for people that would like to eat them in the fellowship hall but parcel donuts again in boxes to go as well. Sherry will work on Thrivent dollars for the expenses. July 25th is the date they are looking at for Christmas in July. If this event happens, we will plan on having s'mores and a donation bucket available. Cheri R will work on Thrivent dollars for this event.

Sherry N will look at having a new debt reduction banner made. We decided that a thermometer that could be 4 x 6' would be easy to see and good for presentations. Our old debt reduction board has served us well but is looking tired and is difficult to see from further away.
Next meeting: TBD. Scott will do the devotion when we meet next.

Adjourned and closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Cheri Rott

Give S'more!!

We're all fired up! Peace Lutheran is on the brink of a blazing opportunity!

Parishioners have done a fantastic job of lighting a fire under the $1.6 million mortgage we acquired on October 16, 2008, which allowed us to expand and build a new facility to aid us in our ministry to the community. We've reduced that debt to $83,653 in just 12 ½ short years. God is good!

So we want to invite you to our mortgage burning party! We'd like to schedule it for October 31 of this year, but there are a few details we need to take care of first. Are you willing to make a sacrifice of praise? Yes, we are asking you to "give s'more."

If each family increases its giving by $40 per month, we will be able to retire our debt by the end of October. With our congregation, it comes out to about $220 per family. Spread out over six months, that's about $40.00 per month, or $1.35 a day. You can't get a Caribou for that amount!

We want to thank you in advance for your help in making this happen! Make sure to note on your check memo or donation envelope that the funds are earmarked for debt reduction.

Please remember the Food Pantry. The "Lord's Cupboard" is at the north end of the Fellowship Hall. Food may be dropped off anytime the church is open.

It takes many volunteers to make Peace Lutheran's Sunday School program great! There are opportunities to volunteer for programs serving every age group - from 3-year-olds through 7th grade. If you are interested, please reach out to Angie Bierwerth (angie.bierwerth@gmail.com or 651.248.3057) for more information.
