...my perspective
(words from one of our members)

There is a song from Garth Brooks that I relate to, "Standing Outside the Fire." "Life is not tried, it is merely survived, if you're standing outside the fire."

I found a home at Peace about 13 years ago. We needed a religious and spiritual place for my then 1st grader. Turns out it was really me who needed a home. I was a lifetime city dweller relocated to a small town with a 50-mile one way commute (until a year and a half ago). It is hard to be a part of something when you are not there. Peace made room for me.

I have worked in the kitchen and taught at LOGOS and Sunday School. There is a table parent, (Barb Ramberg), who has become a lifetime cheerleader for my son. I have worked at rummage sales and baked endless goodies. I have made stuff for silent auctions, eaten brats, played Bingo, and played kickball. Even my grandkids have spent an occasional day at day camp (Thank you, Pauline). I have witnessed many Baptisms, First Communions, and Confirmations in the old and new church. I have a lovely daughter (supported) in Kenya, have attended many Bible studies, and have learned so much about myself.

Mostly I am amazed at the Prayer Warriors at Peace. My sister survived 7 years with stage 4 breast cancer. My cousin has a donated kidney from another cousin, and both are living great lives thanks mostly to Dan Rowe, who prayed while he fought his own health battle. There is a three and a half year old preemie raising hell with his older brothers and sisters. I have a niece who returned from serving overseas, family members fighting addiction, friends whose husbands are fighting cancer and trying to survive a new liver. My son struggles with the debilitating pain of RA, there are many cancers (many in remission), surgeries, and replacements that have occurred, including my own shattered knee, but not my spirit. $40 a month seems so little in return for all the gifts over the past years and hopefully as many in the years to come.

Be in it, be a part of it, feel the heat and know you are not alone, life is not tried, it is merely survived, if you're standing outside the fire. Unless of course you are roasting marshmallows for S'mores.

Laurie Mueller

Overflowing Gratitude, Thank God!

My family and I want to share a formal word of thanks to the people of Peace for their kindness and generosity in blessings! My immediate and extended family - siblings, nieces and nephews, cousins and friends - needed a place to gather and give a proper sending for my mother Ramona. And we were so generously blessed!

You see, I come from a family of preachers, which means we don't get to worship together as we serve the congregations and communities where we live. But here, guests came to gather as one people to pray and praise, to share and feast, and all were overwhelmed with the hospitality offered! Even those who were unable to participate in the service were able to worship where they were because we had the equipment to share the message, the Word, the songs, and the praise.

I knew that a service offered at Peace would provide a place for blessings. It has ever since I interviewed here, and it continues. This "Peaceful presence" is something that visitors sense, and for many, it is what they yearn to feel.

Sharing the sacraments with my extended family is such a rarity for us. For my parents and their siblings and now for me and my siblings, we don't gather on a Sunday morning to worship and feast. It is such a rare event that when we do, it is cherished.

There was another service that took place just days ahead of my mom's funeral. Mara, Ben, and grandson Yuri were here to celebrate my mother. The congregation that Ben, Mara, and Yuri join in worship back in Idaho hadn't gathered to baptize Yuri. I am thankful they asked me to baptize my grandson with some of our family present and some using "Facetime." We found a way to gather a company of believers. Marie Ista made Yuri his baptismal towel. We prayed that the Holy Spirit would fill Yuri to be a blessing and we welcomed him into the whole family of God!

There is something special about the sacraments that we share because every time they are offered in Holy Baptism and Holy Communion, they are united in the one who gave them to us and to all who gather in his name. This "real presence" brings all the people - the whole church in heaven and on earth - together in space and time.

You provided us with a space to raise our children and to bless them. We have been fed and nourished with the food you have provided. We are continually blessed in the time we share in worship and sacrament.

How can we thank you for all the goodness with which you have graced us? We give grateful praise to the one who gave you to us and we will continue to serve, faithfully, in Christ Jesus' name. Now thank we ALL our God! Now let us partner in bringing blessings to those around us and extend it out to the world.

PEACE, PASTOR JOHN'S PEN

P.S. An additional word of thank-filled praise for all the preparations and work that was done for our Christmas in July Celebration. The Bavarian Musikmeisters performed so well! We enjoyed Maddy's ice cream, Rich's grill, S'more seeds, brats and hot dogs - food to feed a crowd! I hope we can do something like this, again...SOON!

LOGOS BOARD June 26, 2021

Devotions/Prayers: We welcomed Becky Anderson to the meeting tonight as she and her husband, Karl, will be co-sharing the LOGOS director position along with Julie's help. Julie shared a devotion from the Holy Bible app on being still, listening to God's voice, and trusting God to lead. We also prayed for the planning process of LOGOS for the coming year.

Next Meeting Date: July 20 at 6:00.

Next board member to attend council meeting: Amy Larson, July 20, 7:00.

Bible Study: Amy has been contacting former bible study teachers to see if any of them feel called to teach again this year. Becky and Karl will teach the 1-2 graders unless Amy finds someone else to take this position. Amy Jurgens will teach the 3-4 graders but will need substitutes the second Wednesday of each month. Nicole will get us started the first couple of Wednesdays with the 5-7 graders but will take time off after she has her baby. Amy will send call letters to the other names that were discussed for the open positions.

Recreation: Heidi Dumond said that she is going to put a plan in place for Kurt and Wes for activity time. She will contact them and discuss this with them. She will make purchases for items needed for activity time by mid-August.

Family Time: Becky has chosen all the themes for the coming year and has planned decorations and some family time games. Carla will continue to plan meals with Pauline's help.

Worship Arts: Julie is going to reach out to a few people and see if they would be willing to work on a short-term basis with the J Crew kids. She will lead the Psalm 100 Kids again this coming year and oversee the J Crew kids too. She will begin putting a schedule together for when they will be a part of worship.

Childcare: Haley Larson will be our early childcare helper this coming year. She will need someone else to cover for her when she is in the all school play. We will also ask Heather Serier if she is able to come and help later as she has in the past.

Financial Report: We have funds left over from last year that Heidi and Becky will use to purchase needed items for recreation time and family time. The money that is not spent will be given to the general fund for the use of the church and the bus. We will establish a budget for the 2021-2022 LOGOS year after we have our parent meeting, and we see how many kids are involved in the program.

New concerns: Prayers for all the potential families to be a part of the program this year.

Closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Julie Hanson

A Garden of Daily Living

Plant three rows of peas: Peas of mind. Peas of heart. Peas of soul.

Plant four rows of squash: Squash gossip. Squash indifference. Squash grumbling. Squash selfishness.

Plant four rows of lettuce: Lettuce be faithful. Lettuce be kind. Lettuce be happy. Lettuce really love one another.

No garden should be without turnips: Turnip for service when needed. Turnip to help one another. Turnip the music and dance.

Water freely with patience and cultivate with love. There is much fruit in your garden because you reap what you sow.

To conclude our garden, we must have thyme: Thyme for fun. Thyme for rest. Thyme for ourselves.

This event is a blessing to the buyers and to the community, and we have a great reputation for quality products and great prices. We benefit the Debt Reduction and Kenya Ministry as they share the profits. Please consider donating your great quality items, and let your friends know. We will accept donations until 1 pm on Thursday September 9, as we need time to sort and price. Please share the word about the sale and consider donating even an hour of your time as it takes many willing workers to do this. Join us on Thursday when we do our final preparation. We have fun and share a potluck lunch. It is a great way to make new friends. No experience needed - we will teach you!
