...our 2021 President

As I sit here writing this newsletter, I realize just how amazing our church and congregation is. When we put our minds to something, we see it through and make it happen. I am beyond humbled to be a part of this congregation as we put the final nail in the coffin on our $1.6 million dollar mortgage. Twelve years ago, our congregation made the decision to take out a mortgage to build a new sanctuary and add classrooms for our ever-growing church. This was a decision that was geared toward looking at the congregation's current and future needs. The vision our leaders had back then was bold and daring; would we sink or swim? Well, we swam and exceeded all expectations. I hope you will be able to join us as we celebrate the burning of our mortgage on Sunday 10/31/21. After our Recommitment Sunday service at 9:30 am, we will have a fun-filled festival which includes lunch, games, fellowship and trunk or treat. Lots of fun to be had!

A couple months ago, I asked you all to think about you and your family as our Executive Committee would like to know if there are ways in which our church is not meeting your needs. Maybe there are some visions you have in mind for our future or ideas that will incorporate your needs and many others. This new vision doesn't have to be as bold and big as taking out a $1.6 million dollar mortgage but maybe a smaller vision such as a volleyball court, a workshop, or something for our youth. We do more than just worship at Peace – we fellowship and grow together as well. So, if you have some ideas, our Executive Committee would love to hear from you.

Jim Hauschild Jr

“Let’s begin, again.”

We are a culture that has lives with a strong focus on completion. We start each work shift. Games begin with the National Anthem. Trips begin by putting the car in drive. School years start with 1st day pictures and introductions. Marriages begin with the exchange of rings. Each of these has an end with clocking out, the final play, a return home, a graduation, or a final kiss. Completed, celebrated, accomplished..., and then...the conductor, director, coach, teacher, and employer say, “Let’s begin, again.” Each time we restarted, we eventually finished and started new compositions, actions, or projects.

Our church began with a small group of like-minded people who gathered in area homes with a time for scripture, prayers, hymns, and thought-provoking conversations. These gatherings brought family and neighbors together to support each other, advance the community, and connect with the One whom we confess began it all. Over time, a congregation was formed, a building was proposed, a pastor was called, but the mission was the same – time to support others, to advance the community, and to connect with God. We really haven’t changed.

Now we have completed the phase of our ministry which started about 15 years ago with thoughts being shared over a cup of coffee or around fellowship tables. It began with many different ideas and concepts, sometimes seeming to be larger than reality. Then, with thoughtful dialogue, research, and effort, a plan was developed that gave us the framework that we use for ministry, worship, and mission today.

Well, we did it! We built and paid for this construction that we use to bless, educate, motivate, mourn, and host so many people in their life journeys. So now, let’s begin, again.

What are we going to do? We learn from the conductor, director, coach, teacher, and employer. We begin by looking at what is available to us. We review the resources we have available to us. We also review the needs of the community.

This is a time for conversation, thoughtful sharing, and prayer. Ideas will come and go with insights that might seem impossible, but it is only with careful listening and encouragement that we will find another way to support each other, advance the community and connect with God. This ability to converse, listen, and pray will guide us through times of recession, cold weather, muddy parking lots, and power outages because we are seeking to guide our people to our next beginning.

Similar to the leaders of our congregation over the generations, the task to get us to sit down and start again does not come with a favorable look. But, if our goal is to support each other, advance the community, and connect with our God, then the best work will be done in building on a foundation of faithful, hopeful, and loving conversations with our church, the people who make up the body of Christ in our worship and our witness.

I am so grateful for all that our people have done to bring us into this new phase of church activity. We have sent some of our community to join other communities, some to be with God, and we have gathered new families into our Community of Worship, Prayer, and Praise. We will find others who need a place of welcome and support while teaching them of their part in our expression of the Family of God. Let us use our ears to hear and our arms to embrace those around us, and unite our voices in praise, witness, and celebration. Let’s begin, again!

PEACE, PASTOR JOHN’S PEN

WOMEN of PEACE

October 14, 2021

The Women of Peace met on Thursday, October 14, at 1:30 p.m. with six members present. President Shirley Rode called the meeting to order. The secretary's report for August was read. Motion to accept by Marie Ista, seconded by Dee Campbell. Motion carried.

The treasurer's report was given by Marie. She reported purchases for fabric for Baptismal towels, batting for quilts, and cards to be sold, and also $120.00 to His Arms Childrens Project in Kenya. Motion to accept by Dee, seconded by Vi. Motion carried.

Pauline Wangen, Director of Family Ministries, talked about upcoming events including the mortgage burning celebration on October 31. Verla, Shirley, Dee, and Vi each volunteered to bring a pan of bars or cookies for lunch that day.

After some discussion it was decided to observe Thankoffering Sunday on November 7. Quilts made by the Women of Peace will be put on the pews that day. A special display will be set up to show what goes into the making of quilts. Instead of getting a special speaker, Pastor John will tell about all that the Women of Peace do. An offering will be taken for them.

We hope to be able to have our annual Christmas cookie sale on Sunday, December 5. Details to be decided later.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:05 p.m. The Bible study about the mothers of Moses was simple and easy to discuss because it was so familiar to all of us.

Pastor John joined the group for parts of the meeting and again for coffee and dessert served by Verla Solberg.

Our next meeting will be November 11 with Dee as hostess.

Respectfully submitted by Vi Roquette, Secretary

Christmas: The Real Story Bible Study by Dr. Harry Wendt

Mondays, November 15-December 13 at 6:30 pm - Join us at church or on Zoom. Cost: $12 for the study guide. The Bible tells a very adult story of Jesus' birth. Social outcasts and Gentiles were honored witnesses; a powerful king became fearful and murderous. Family Movie Night What If...
